

Sports Bee

Round 1 - Prelims

1. This event's very first match saw first-time participant Senegal defeat France 1-0; France scored zero goals in the entirety of this event despite being defending champions. A host nation and the US advanced to this event's knockout round ahead of Portugal and Poland. One of the host teams was defeated in the round of 16 by surprise 3rd place finisher Turkey. A 2-0 victory for Brazil over Germany won, for the point, which FIFA World Cup held in Japan and South Korea?

ANSWER: 2002 FIFA World Cup

2. In the early 20th century, this team had an in-city rival called the Maroons. In 2004-05, they adopted the beloved Youppi as their mascot, after Youppi had been dropped by the departing baseball franchise in this team's city. Early goaltending stars for this team included Ken Dryden and Jacques Plante, and the team's single-season points record is held by the very locally appropriately named Guy Lafleur. Their last Stanley Cup win, also Canada's last, was in 1993 with Patrick Roy (pronounced WAH) at goalie. For the point, name this only NHL team in the province of Québec.

ANSWER: Montréal Canadiens (accept either underlined portion, accept the Habs or Les Habitants)

3. A trophy linked to this event is so delicate that it has only travelled to one of the countries participating in this event twice, in 1988 and 2006. In 2013, Darren Lehmann became coach of a side of this event hurt by retirements, although the performances of Ashton Agar and the late Phil Hughes were bright spots. James Anderson was key for victory at Trent Bridge, though in a second contesting of this series in Australia, the home team completed a whitewash. Don Bradman has the record for runs in this series contested against England. For the point, name this cricket event.

ANSWER: The Ashes

4. Margaret Lambert, a resident of Queens, was disqualified from participating in the Olympics for this reason. In 1995, the Gretel Bergmann sports arena was opened in Lambert's honor in Wilmersdorf, Berlin, though Lambert was uninterested in going to Germany for the ceremony. Al Rosen and Hank Greenberg bore nicknames that identified them for this, as does Ryan Braun in modern times. Game 1 of the World Series was pitched by Don Drysdale for Sandy Koufax's being a member of a certain faith and not wanting to pitch on Yom Kippur. For the point, name this religion of Gretel Bergmann, who was not allowed to compete in the 1936 Olympics.

ANSWER: Judaism or being Jewish (accept reasonable equivalents)

5. Heidi Kruger, a competitor for this country, claimed that drugs administered to her without her knowledge led to her eventually getting a sex change operation and becoming Andreas Kruger. Manfred Ewald and Dr. Lothar Kipke of this country were sentenced to two years and fifteen months for giving swimmers steroids, which led to birth defects in their children, Max Zorin, a fictional character from this country, injected steroids into horses that could be activated through microchips. Leading the way in doping, this country was very successful at athletics despite having a smaller population than its western neighbor. For the point, name this country that unified with its western neighbor in 1990.

ANSWER: East Germany (accept Ostdeutschland or DDR or Deutsche Demokratische Republik, Do not accept or prompt on just "Germany")

6. Nicolaj Jensen replaced one player for this team, who came out of retirement in early July 2015 after the disappointing play of Will Hartman. Its Challenger team, Tempest, was suspended for allowing Timokiro to substitute for Fade after a patching issue. This team's roster in another sport includes Hafu, ek0p, StrifeCro, and Kolento. Hai Du Lam currently jungles for, for the point, what North American gaming club that competes in DotA 2, CS:GO, and most prominently League of Legends, with a heavenly name.

ANSWER: Cloud 9 (or C9)

7. This player retired with 1,284 hits and walks combined and 1,283.2 innings pitched. He was left unprotected in the Rockies' and Marlins' expansion drafts. The last player to wear the number 42 regularly, he surrendered a Luis González single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series, in a rare postseason loss. The 1999 World Series MVP against Atlanta, he posted a career 0.70 ERA in the postseason. For the point, name this Yankees closer and all-time career saves leader.

ANSWER: Mariano Rivera

8. One player from this modern-day country averaged nearly 10 points and over seven rebounds last season as a freshman at Gonzaga. That man from this modern-day country's father was referred to as "7-3 Larry Bird" by Bill Walton and played his entire NBA career with the Portland Trail Blazers. This country won bronze in its first three Olympics as an independent nation from 1992 to 2000, and its NBA players have included Jonas Valanciunas, Arvydas Sabonis, and a player whose number 11 was retired by the Cleveland Cavaliers. For the point, name this Baltic country, home of Zydrunas Ilgauskas

ANSWER: Lithuania

9. This nation's baseball league has been won by the Heat in 5 of its ten years, and the team representing this nation's largest city is nicknamed the Blue Sox. Phil Walsh, the coach of the Crows, was honored at a Hawthorn vs. Collingwood match of this nation's namesake game, after being stabbed recently. This nation produced the golfers Steve Elkington, Stuart Appleby, Adam Scott and Jason Day. For the point, name this native country of Ricky Ponting and Greg Norman, which hosted the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney.

ANSWER: Australia

10. After hosting the 1964 AFC Asian Cup, this nation's soccer team advanced to its first Summer Olympics in 1968. Their only World Cup appearance came after defeating New Zealand and Australia in qualifying, as North Korea forfeited against this team. In 1958, Turkey and Sudan withdrew rather than face this team, and Indonesia offered to play this team in Indonesia, but not in this country. This team thus became the AFC championships without playing a match. FIFA decided to make this team play Wales home and away for the World Cup bid, which this team lost. Qatar has said it will allow this team to play if it qualifies, despite its citizens not being allowed to enter Qatar. For the point, name this nation whose local clubs include Beitar Jerusalem.

ANSWER: State of Israel

11. A young Leo Messi drew attention for scoring using this technique in a game against Recreativo de Huelva, and in 2013, Chelsea's Eden Hazard repeatedly kicked a Swansea City ballboy after the ballboy showcased this technique on the sideline. The most famous goal of this type was scored past Peter Shilton, and in 2009, FIFA paid the Irish Football Association five million euros to drop a legal challenge about Thierry Henry's goal of this type. This technique resulted in a missed Asamoah Gyan penalty and a red card when Luis Suarez used it on his own goal line in 2010. For the point, name this technique in soccer that is notably illegal for every player except the goalkeeper.

Answer: using one's hand [accept handball or handling the ball; accept holding the ball, grabbing it, or anything that definitively indicates that a hand is being used; prompt on anything implying that a rule is being broken but not specifying how, such as "scoring illegally"]

12. This team scored 2 goals to Porto's 3 in the 2003 UEFA Cup final. Gordon Strachan (presumably stray-han) led this team to three league titles in his first three years. In 1970, they made the European Cup final, losing to Feyenoord. Tommy Gemmell and Steve Chalmers scored goals for manager Jock Stein in this team's victory over Inter Milan in the 1967 European Cup. In doing so, this team became the first British and Northern European side to win a European championship. This team, along with the Rangers, compose the Old Firm. For the point, name this Glasgow-based football club named for its Irish roots.

ANSWER: Celtic F.C.

13. Retiring in 2013 after playing his final match in Wankhede Stadium, this man dedicated his performance in a re-located 2008 series against England to recent victims of terrorism. In the 2009-2010 season, this man surpassed Charles Coventry of Zimbabwe and Saeed Anwar of Pakistan by scoring the first double century not out. He is the only cricketer to have surpassed 30,000 runs in international play. For the point, name this Indian, regarded by many as the best batsman ever.

ANSWER: Sachin Tendulkar

14. Austin natives Jimmy King and Ray Jackson played for this university. This university also recruited a player whose acting career involved playing President Bartlett's ex-Duke scrimmage buddy on "The West Wing" and "old man" on the 2012-2013 Miami Heat, Juwan Howard. One player to play for this university was ironically commentating a playoff game when coach David Blatt called a timeout his team didn't have. That player, Chris Webber, tried to call a timeout for this university in the 1993 NCAA final, resulting in a technical foul. For the point, name this university, where the "Fab Five" attended in Ann Arbor.

ANSWER: University of Michigan

15. Ramon Caisple described this politician as fitting the mold of a "trapo" or "rag," as his political support comes from donations like fishing boats and water buffaloes in relatively poor Sarangani. This man's wife, Jinkee, serves as provincial vice governor, and out of dozen bills filed as a legislator, none have passed. He was praised for a speech against human trafficking in 2010, but this man's views on contraception have been viewed by many as dangerous. One law that has been passed in this man's home country is one allowing the Army to intervene if this man or his family is in danger. More famous for being a professional boxer, this man can run for Philippine president in 2022. For the point, name this man.

ANSWER: Emmanuel "Manny" Dapidran Pacquiao

16. Utrecht and Leeds have been the sites of the start of this competition in the last two years. Ottavio Bottecchia was the first Italian winner of this event. On July 25, 2007 two small bombs planted by ETA went off in Spain during this event. Bjarne Riis' admission of doping meant that the 1996 edition of this event's top 3 finishers all were guilty of doping, and Floyd Landis was an American stripped of his title for doping. Notable winners from before the era of doping at this event include Eddy Merckx, Greg LeMond, and Miguel Indurain. For the point, name this bicycle race won 7 times by Lance Armstrong.

ANSWER: Tour de France

17. This sport's playing field has no set size, but always includes a long alley flanked by sloping side walls topped with flat surfaces. It can include rackets, bats, or the use of arms, but the most common rules interpretation is that players use their hips. Uluma is an adaptation of, for the point, what sporting event played by the Hero Twins against the gods of Xibalba in a story from the Popol Vuh and played by Mesoamericans three millennia ago?

ANSWER: (Mayan or Mesoamerican or similar) ball game (or pitz or uluma)

18. Manel Estiarte competed in six Olympic Games in this sport, losing 9-8 to Italy in extra time with Spain in the 1992 Olympics and winning gold in Atlanta with his team. Terry Schroeder was a noted American competitor in this sport. Perhaps the most famous match in this sport involved captain Dezső (like déjà as in déjà vu) Gyarmati (jahr-maht) punching opposing players. Ervin Zádor's eyes were bleeding after a scuffle with Valentin Prokopov of the USSR in a match in this sport. That match occurred after a Soviet invasion of Hungary. For the point, the Hungarians advanced to defeat Yugoslavia in the final, 2 to 1 in what sport, an aquatic version of a sport also played on horseback.

ANSWER: water polo

19. A film of this name premiered at the 2013 Sundance Film Festival and was directed by Evan Jackson Leong. This period of time reportedly ended a 48-day-long cable dispute and it was directly preceded by its central figure playing briefly for the Erie BayHawks. The subject of two consecutive Sports Illustrated covers, this time period began on February 4 against the Nets and featured a 38-point performance against the Lakers. This period's success, including sale of #17 jerseys and frequent assists to Tyson Chandler, were unable to prevent the firing of Mike D'Antoni. For the point, name this period of fan fervor around a Taiwanese American point guard for the Knicks.

ANSWER: Linsanity

20. An edited version of this film was aired on North Korean state TV in 2010, marking the tenth anniversary of diplomatic relations with the United Kingdom. The main characters in this movie get to follow in the footsteps of Steve Nash, as they win scholarships to Santa Clara University.

Archie Panjabi of The Good Wife fame played the main character's sister. Set in Hounslow and featuring the fictional Hounslow Harriers, it starred Jonathan Rhys Meyers, Keira Knightley, and Parminder Nagra. For the point, name this story of Jess, a Punjabi English girl who loves soccer.

ANSWER: Bend It Like Beckham

21. When referring to basketball, this word was used after the word "bruise" to describe Reggie Johnson, Mark Olberding, and Dave Corzine, a relatively obscure group of San Antonio Spurs big men. Zach LaVine and Andrew Wiggins of Minnesota have taken to calling themselves the Bounce "this," while the term Splash "this" has been applied to Stephen [stef-un] Curry and Klay Thompson of the champion Golden State Warriors. Perhaps the most famous application of this term was to Oakland A's sluggers who were known as Bash "this." For the point, name this term referring to a male sibling.

ANSWER: brothers

22. Robert Riger's use of the instrumental "Cotton's Dream" paired with video of this athlete led that song to be re-named "[this person's] Theme." After 1981, she was heavily scrutinized by Soviet officials after her coaches defected to the United States. She won three gold medals in Montreal, including the all-around. Omega SA was embarrassed due to this athlete's performance on the uneven bars; their equipment was forced to show 1.00, as it only had three digits. Bela Karolyi famously coached, for the point, what Romanian gymnast who, in 1976, became the first gymnast to receive a perfect 10 in Olympic competition?

ANSWER: Nadia Comaneci

23. This type of event recently killed one country's national volleyball team coach, Keshav Lal Shrestha, and will require the re-scheduling of the Asian Weightlifting Games. This event led to further criticism for Qatar's World Cup hosting bid, as Qatar refused to allow workers from the affected country to attend funerals. Joe Torre of ESPN and Jim Palmer, Tim McCarver, and Al Michaels of ABC were reporting during one event of this type in 1989. That event happened a half hour before the schedule start time of Game 3 of the World Series at Candlestick Park. For the point, name this type of natural disaster that delayed the 1989 World Series for ten days.

ANSWER: earthquake

24. As an amateur this man lost to Henry Tillman, the winner of gold at the Los Angeles Olympics, twice. One famous quote attributed to this man is "I guess I'm going to fade into Bolivian," which he did not. Released after three years in prison, he returned to fight such lightweights as Peter McNeeley and Buster Mathis, Jr. before defending his WBA title against Evander Holyfield. For the point, name this tattooed boxer who bit off Evander Holyfield's ear.

ANSWER: Michael Gerard "Mike" Tyson

25. At Bill Shankly's debut as manager for this club, it was in the Second Division. In 1972, a final game victory against Arsenal would have given this team the league title over upstart Derby (dah-ree) County, a season portrayed in detail in the film The Damned United. Bob Paisley signed Kenny Dalglish, who would score the winning goal in the 1978 European Cup. In the 1980's, this team became associated with tragedy, as in 1989, 96 people lost their lives in the Hillsborough disaster. The Heysel stadium disaster resulted in the deaths of 39 Juventus supporters and a ban for all English football sides for 5 years. For the point, name this team which rebounded to win a classic 2005 Champions' League final against AC Milan.

ANSWER: Liverpool FC

26. The last one of these in the 1970's was a Salute to the Caribbean sponsored by Carnival Cruises featuring a band from Dominica. One of these held in Minnesota featured skater Dorothy Hamill, while the 1991 edition of this event was crucial, as it featured popular boy band New Kids on the Block. In 1993, performances of "Billie Jean" and "Black or White" by Michael Jackson boosted ratings of this event, and thirteen years later, this event, though also featuring Kid Rock, controversially displayed too much of Janet Jackson. In 2015 Katy Perry headlined, for the point, what event that separates the 2nd and 3rd quarters of the NFL Championship game?

ANSWER: Super Bowl halftime show

27. This right fielder impressively threw out Terrence Long at third base in his eighth career MLB game. This player joined Fred Lynn as the only players to win Rookie of the Year and AL MVP in the same season, leading his team to a record-tying 116 wins in 2001; that season came after accruing 1,278 hits for the Orix Blue Wave. The MLB record for hits in a season is held by, for the point, what longtime Seattle Mariner, who has by far the most Wins Above Replacement of any MLB player from Japan?

ANSWER: Ichiro Suzuki (accept either name)

28. Dan Fegan was not able to enter this building, and one player jokingly claimed to have left a vacation in Hawaii to come to this place. One person hinted at his travel to this building by tweeting a plane emoji and Chris Broussard erroneously reported that this place was in Dallas and that one man was "beside himself" trying to find where this place was on the night of July 9th. Adrian Wojnarowski tweeted about a card game that could have included Steve Ballmer and Chris Paul in this house while Chandler Parsons and Mark Cuban could not get in. For the point, name this Houston domicile, the site of the conclusion of a 2015 NBA free agency dispute.

ANSWER: DeAndre Jordan's house (accept equivalents for house)

29. In a 2009 commercial for Burger King, this driver tried to teach Erik Estrada and Carrot Top how to properly endorse products. This driver finally won an IROC championship in 2006, the year before that series was folded. Racing for Joe Gibbs, he won the 2002 and 2005 Winston and Nextel Cup championships, and did so independently in 2011. Also competing in midget car racing events like the Chili Bowl Nationals, Regan Smith replaced this driver in the Cheez-It 355 after the death of Kevin Ward, Jr. Ward had been struck by this driver's car the previous night, killing Ward. For the point, name this driver, a former Indy Racing driver turned NASCAR driver.

ANSWER: Anthony Wayne "Tony" Stewart

30. The McIlvaine Canvasbacks and the Harmarville Hurricanes are teams from this country that won "national" titles. A 1966 match featured the Ukrainian Nationals vs. an Armenians team that would, as the Montabello Armenians, lose a 1969 championship to a "Greek" team that plays in the Cosmopolitan League now. The Pancyprian-Freedoms from the largest city in this country defeated a team called Maccabi from this country's second largest city in a 1980 championship. The San Pedro Yugoslavs lost two open championships in this country, although that tournament has recently featured more notable teams such as the Sounders, Union, United, and Real Salt Lake. For the point, name this country whose MLS contains the LA Galaxy.

ANSWER: The United States or USA

Extra Tossup – ONLY READ IF A QUESTION IS BOTCHED!

REPLACEMENT. Lausanne, Detroit, and Budapest finished second, third, and fourth in the voting for these games, with Budapest becoming the first city in a Warsaw Pact country to bid for the games. This Olympics saw South Africa's final participation until 1992, and future monarchs who competed here included Constantine II of Greece and Queen Sofia of Spain. The Japanese men's gymnastics team started a major run here, and Abebe Bikila was the first African marathon champion. Most noted for the success of Cassius Clay and Wilma Rudolph, this Summer Olympics was followed by the first Asian Olympics, also in a former Axis country. For the point, name these Olympic Games held in the capital of Italy.

ANSWER: 1960 Rome Summer Olympics(accept either underlined portion or Games of the XVII Olympiad)